The Opening Acclamation

Celebrant: Bless the Lord who forgives all our sins.

People: His mercy endures for ever. Amen

Celebrant: Jesus said, “The first commandment is this: Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God is the only Lord. Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength. The second is this: Love your neighbor as yourself. There is no other commandment greater than these.

Celebrant: Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Celebrant and People:

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.

Celebrant: Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

Trisagion, S-100

“Holy God, Holy and Mighty”

David Hurd

The musical score is written on a single treble clef staff in G major (one sharp) and 8/4 time. It consists of four lines of music. The lyrics are: "Ho - ly God, Ho - ly and Might - y, Ho - ly Im - mor - tal One, Have mer - cy up - on us. Ho - ly God, Ho - ly and Might - y, Ho - ly Im - mor - tal One, Have mer - cy up - on us. Ho - ly God, Ho - ly and Might - y, Ho - ly Im - mor - tal One, Have mer - cy up - on us." The melody is simple and hymn-like, with a triplet of eighth notes in the final line.

The Collect

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

Almighty God, whose blessed Son was led by the Spirit to be tempted by Satan: Come quickly to help us who are assaulted by many temptations; and, as you know the weaknesses of each of us, let each one find you mighty to save; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The First Reading

Deuteronomy 26:1-11

When you have come into the land that the Lord your God is giving you as an inheritance to possess, and you possess it, and settle in it, you shall take some of the first of all the fruit of the ground, which you harvest from the land that the Lord your God is giving you, and you shall put it in a basket and go to the place that the Lord your God will choose as a dwelling for his name. You shall go to the priest who is in office at that time, and say to him, "Today I declare to the Lord your God that I have come into the land that the Lord swore to our ancestors to give us." When the priest takes the basket from your hand and sets it down before the altar of the Lord your God, you shall make this response before the Lord your God: "A wandering Aramean was my ancestor; he went down into Egypt and lived there as an alien, few in number, and there he became a great nation, mighty and populous. When the Egyptians treated us harshly and afflicted us, by imposing hard labor on us, we cried to the Lord, the God of our ancestors; the Lord heard our voice and saw our affliction, our toil, and our oppression. The Lord brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, with a terrifying display of power, and with signs and wonders; and he brought us into this place and gave us this land, a land flowing with milk and honey. So now I bring the first of the fruit of the ground that you, O Lord, have given me." You shall set it down before the Lord your God and bow down before the Lord your God. Then you, together with the Levites and the aliens who reside among you, shall celebrate with all the bounty that the Lord your God has given to you and to your house.

People: Thanks be to God.

The people read the verses in bold.

1 He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High, *abides under the shadow of the Almighty.

2 He shall say to the Lord, "You are my refuge and my stronghold, * my God in whom I put my trust."

9 Because you have made the Lord your refuge, * and the Most High your habitation,

10 There shall no evil happen to you, * neither shall any plague come near your dwelling.

11 For he shall give his angels charge over you, * to keep you in all your ways.

12 They shall bear you in their hands, * lest you dash your foot against a stone.

13 You shall tread upon the lion and adder; * you shall trample the young lion and the serpent under your feet.

14 Because he is bound to me in love, therefore will I deliver him; * I will protect him, because he knows my Name.

15 He shall call upon me, and I will answer him; * I am with him in trouble; I will rescue him and bring him to honor.

16 With long life will I satisfy him, * and show him my salvation.

The Second Reading

Romans 10:8b-13

"The word is near you, on your lips and in your heart"

(that is, the word of faith that we proclaim); because if you confess with your lips that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For one believes with the heart and so is justified, and one confesses with the mouth and so is saved. The scripture says, "No one who believes in him will be put to shame." For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; the same Lord is Lord of all and is generous to all who call on him. For, "Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved."

The Holy Gospel

Luke 4:1-13

Gospeller: The Holy Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

After his baptism, Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit in the wilderness, where for forty days he was tempted by the devil. He ate nothing at all during those days, and when they were over, he was famished. The devil said to him, "If you are the Son of God, command this stone to become a loaf of bread." Jesus answered him, "It is written, 'One does not live by bread alone.'"

Then the devil led him up and showed him in an instant all the kingdoms of the world. And the devil said to him, "To you I will give their glory and all this authority; for it has been given over to me, and I give it to anyone I please. If you, then, will worship me, it will all be yours." Jesus answered him, "It is written,

'Worship the Lord your God, and serve only him.'"

Then the devil took him to Jerusalem, and placed him on the pinnacle of the temple, saying to him, "If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down from here, for it is written,

'He will command his angels concerning you,
to protect you,'

and

'On their hands they will bear you up, so that you will not dash your foot against a stone.'"

Jesus answered him, "It is said, 'Do not put the Lord your God to the test.'" When the devil had finished every test, he departed from him until an opportune time.

Gospeller: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Sermon

The Rev. Dr. Lisa Barrowclough

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:
By the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Leader:

With all our heart and will all our mind, let us pray to the Lord, saying, "Lord, have mercy"

For the peace of the world, for the welfare of the holy Church of God, and for the unity of all peoples, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For our Bishop, and for all the clergy and people, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For our President, for the leaders of the nations, and for all in the authority, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For this city of Washington, for every city and community, and for those who live in them, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For the good earth which God has given us, and for the wisdom and will to conserve it, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For the aged and infirm, for the widowed and orphans, and for the sick and the suffering, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For the poor and the oppressed, for the unemployed and the destitute, for prisoners and captives, and for all who remember and care for them, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For our enemies and those who wish us harm; and for all whom we have injured or offended, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For all who have died in the hope of resurrection, especially Jay Roosevelt Spain, and for all the departed, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For deliverance of all danger, violence, oppression, and degradation, especially for trans folk, all migrants and refugees, our sister Parish of St. Etienne in Haiti, and for those in the Holy Land, Sudan, Ukraine, and all war-torn places and places dealing with natural disasters, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For the ministry of our Day School, we pray for our students, and for the faculty and staff who teach and care for them.

Lord, have mercy.

For those who celebrate birthdays this week, especially Eliot Christensen-Pustejovsky, Robert Vaughn, Ron Klingenberg, Richard Worthing, Dan Wedderburn, Louise Tucker that they might grow in wisdom and grace, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For the special needs and concerns of this congregation especially Lesley Riddle, The Spain family: Phyllis, Cedric, Sean, and Jalene & Torrance Thomas, The Barr family, The Pugh Family: Bill, Carolyn, & Anna, The Sommerkamp Family, The Geffert Family, The Heatherman Garber Family, Ellen Terpstra, Harry & Kathy Teter, Lisa Addison, Claudia Hill, Susan, Elizabeth, Andrew, JoLynne Hough, Barbara, Larry & Melissa Packard, Dan Wedderburn, Clarke and Gwendolyn Nash, Chris, Robert Vaughn, Peggy Beers, Ron Klingenberg, Jean-Luc Princivil, Cherry Bourque, and Francis, Bishop of Rome; and those we name before you, either silently or aloud.

Silence

Let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

That we may end our lives in faith and hope, without suffering and without reproach, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

In the communion of Blessed Patrick and all the saints, let us commend ourselves, and one another, and all our life, to Christ our God.

To thee, O Lord.

A Collect for the Nation

Lord God Almighty, you have made all the peoples of the earth for your glory, to serve you in freedom and peace: Give to the people of our country a zeal for justice and the strength of forbearance, that we may use our liberty in accordance with your gracious will; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Celebrant adds a concluding Collect

The Peace

Celebrant: The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People: And also with you.

The Ministers and People may greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Welcome and Announcements

A Note on Communion: You are invited to receive Holy Communion by coming forward and placing one open palm on top of the other to receive the wafer. Please tell the server if you would prefer a gluten free wafer. We are offering the common cup, and ask that you sip from it, and do not intinct (dip) the wafer. Receiving Communion in one kind is sufficient. If you do not wish to receive Communion but would like a blessing instead, please come forward and cross your arms over your chest. If you would like Communion to be brought to you, please let an usher know. It is the tradition of St. Patrick's Parish to invite all who feel called to receive Holy Communion to feel welcome in doing so. This is God's table. If you are interested in being baptized or confirmed, please speak to Andrew or another member of the clergy, and they will be glad to answer your questions and have a conversation with you about the process.

Online Giving

If you wish to give an offering towards the mission and ministry of St. Patrick's and would prefer to do so online, please text "STPATS" to 73256, visit <https://onrealm.org/stpatrickschurchdc/Give>, or scan the QR code.

The Great Thanksgiving: Eucharist Prayer One

Enriching Our Worship

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant: It is truly right, and good and joyful, to give you thanks, all-holy God, source of life and fountain of mercy.

You bid your faithful people cleanse their hearts, and prepare with joy for the Paschal feast; that, fervent in prayer and in works of mercy, and renewed by your Word and Sacraments, they may come to the fullness of grace which you have prepared for those who love you.

Therefore, joining with Angels and Archangels and with the faithful of every generation, we lift our voices with all creation as we sing:

Celebrant: Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of the universe and giver of life. You formed us in your own image and called us to dwell in your infinite love.

You gave the world into our care that we might be your faithful stewards and show forth your bountiful grace. But we failed to honor your image in one another and in ourselves; we would not see your goodness in the world around us; and so we violated your creation, abused one another, and rejected your love. Yet you never ceased to care for us, and prepared the way of salvation for all people.

Through Abraham and Sarah you called us into covenant with you. You delivered us from slavery, sustained us in the wilderness, and raised up prophets to renew your promise of salvation. Then, in the fullness of time, you sent your eternal Word, made mortal flesh in Jesus. Born into the human family, and dwelling among us, he revealed your glory. Giving himself freely to death on the cross, he triumphed over evil, opening the way of freedom and life.

On the night before he died for us, Our Savior Jesus Christ took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his friends, and said: "Take, eat: This is my Body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said: "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People:

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

Celebrant: Remembering his death and resurrection, we now present to you from your creation this bread and this wine. By your Holy Spirit may they be for us the Body and Blood of our Savior Jesus Christ. Grant that we who share these gifts may be filled with the Holy Spirit and live as Christ's Body in the world. Bring us into the everlasting heritage of your daughters and sons, that with Patrick and all your saints, past, present, and yet to come, we may praise your Name for ever.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever. AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer

Celebrant: And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Celebrant and People:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

A period of silence is kept.

The Agnus Dei

The Post Communion Prayer

Celebrant and People:

God of abundance, you have fed us with the bread of life and cup of salvation; you have united us with Christ and one another; and you have made us one with all your people in heaven and on earth. Now send us forth in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Solemn Prayer over the People

Celebrant: Let us bow down before the Lord.

Grant, Almighty God, that your people may recognize their weakness and put their whole trust in your strength, so that they may rejoice for ever in the protection of your loving providence; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Music

Our music during Lent reflects the season. We put away anything that includes the “Alleluia” and sing hymns and responses that are a little more introspective or meditative. It’s one part of our Lenten journey. Remember, in this season of prayer and contemplation, when you sing, you pray twice!

Next week we celebrate our St. Patrick’s Feast Day and welcome back our wonderful Bagpiper, Robert Mitchell. He shares music for the standard Highland Pipes that you will enjoy as you arrive, but also the Uilleann pipes that can be played (and comfortably heard!) inside.

Our Cantoris Choir shares special music for the day including a setting of a Gaelic Rune, “The Rune of Hospitality” which reminds us, as Father Sean did a few weeks ago, that “...often goes the Christ in the stranger’s guise.”

Lenten Book Study

Desmund Tutu – The Book of Forgiving - Join Andrew+ on Tuesday evenings in the Library (and on Zoom). Forgiveness is embedded in our call to Christian discipleship. We find it in the Lord’s Prayer and we profess that the cup of wine, which mystically becomes the blood of Christ, has been shed for all for the forgiveness of sins. However, many of us don’t know what forgiveness actually means, nor do we know how to go about doing this often-fraught work. Tutus’ book recounts stories of forgiveness to inspire and teach us what forgiveness is and isn’t, while being a practical how-to spiritual guide to show us how to forgive and be forgiven.

We will have a light dinner beginning at 6:30pm followed by discussion at 7pm.

The 2025 Rummage Sale

Save the Date

Mark your calendars and start cleaning out your closets!

March 3: Donation drop-off begins in lower garage. Help sort donations!

March 23&30: Donation sorting after the 10am service. Lend a hand!

April 6: Box move up to Gym after 10am service

April 7-9: Set up in Gym

April 10-11: Faculty/Staff Preview Sale (need help cashiering)

April 12: Sale Day (8am-1pm) and Break Down (1pm-3pm)

Our set up schedule is different this year, so let us know what days you will be available to help for this all hands-on deck event. We need help sorting all through March, both weekdays and weekends. Sign up opportunities coming your way, but email Karen Melchar (kmelchar@gmail.com) with any questions or if you're new to the Rummage Sale.

This annual sale is our biggest outreach to the wider community, bringing quality goods to those in need and those who love a bargain. All proceeds benefit the Outreach Fund which enables our work with our partners in Haiti, funds our supplies for the monthly Grate Patrol lunch bags, and other ministries.

Samaritan Ministry Next Step Breakfast 2025

Join Karen Melchar at this year's Samaritan Ministry Next Step Breakfast on Saturday, March 29 (9am - 10:30am) at the National Press Club with The Rt. Rev. Mariann Budde, Bishop of Washington as the keynote speaker. Scan the QR to register. Enter St. Patrick's as your parish and Karen Melchar as your Table Captain.

We support the work Samaritan Ministry does here in our city by helping those in need taking the next step toward housing, employment and independent living. Samaritan offers career counseling, interview/job skills training, food pantry and the services of professional caseworkers to help people get back on their feet in a difficult and expensive economy.

Interested in attending, but need to organize a ride? Contact Parish Representative Karen Melchar (kfmelchar@gmail.com).
