The Institution

Dear People of God. We have come together today to welcome Amy Yount, who has been chosen to serve as Head Chaplain of St. Patrick's Episcopal Day School. We believe that she is well qualified, and that he has been prayerfully selected.

Amy, having committed yourself to this work, do not forget the trust of those who have called you. Care alike for young and old, strong and weak, rich and poor, and especially for our school community. By your words, and in your life, proclaim the Gospel of Love, by teaching, serving and pastoring God's people. Nourish them, and strengthen them to glorify God in this life and in the life to come. May the Lord, who has given you the will to do these things, give you the grace and power to perform them.

Head of School: Amy, do you, in the presence of this congregation, commit yourself to this new trust and responsibility?

Chaplain: I do

Rector: Will you who witness this new beginning support and uphold Amy in this ministry?

People: We will

Rector: Let us then offer our prayers to God for all God's people, for this congregation, and for Amy our new head chaplain.

and encouraged to persevere to the end, we pray to you, O Lord.

among nations and peoples, we pray to you, O Lord.

promote the dignity and freedom of every person,
we pray to you, O Lord.

People: Lord, hear our prayer.

creation, that the world may be freed from poverty, famine, and disaster,
we pray to you, O Lord.

People: Lord, hear our prayer.

People: Lord, hear our prayer.

Litanist: For all who have died in the communion of your Church, and those whose faith is known to you alone, that, with all the saints, they may have rest in that place where there is no pain or grief, but life eternal, we pray to you, O Lord.

People: Lord, hear our prayer.

Litanist: Rejoicing in the fellowship of the ever-blessed Virgin Mary, blessed Patrick and all the saints, let us commend ourselves, and one another, and all our life to Christ our God.

Everliving God, strengthen and sustain Amy, that with patience and understanding she may love and care for your people; and grant that together they may follow Jesus Christ, offering to you their gifts and talents; through him who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

The Collect for Episcopal Schools

God of knowledge and wisdom, we pray to you for all the schools across this country, which are part of the Episcopal Church. We remember them in their variety, in their differences, and in what they share. Give us open doors, open minds, and open hearts that we might accept, learn, and love everything and everyone whom you have given us. Help us to share our lives and what we have, and to learn from all those who are in school with us. We pray in the name of Jesus who opened his arms to all, young and old. Amen.

The First Reading

I Kings 19:11-13

He said, "Go out and stand on the mountain before the Lord, for the Lord is about to pass by." Now there was a great wind, so strong that it was splitting mountains and breaking rocks in pieces before the Lord, but the Lord was not in the wind, and after the wind an earthquake, but the Lord was not in the earthquake, and after the earthquake a fire, but the Lord was not in the fire, and after the fire a sound of sheer silence. When Elijah heard it, he wrapped his face in his mantle and went out and stood at the entrance of the cave. Then there came a voice to him that said, "What are you doing here, Elijah?"

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

The Psalm

Psalm 46

The people read the verses in bold.

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1 God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. | 6 The nations are in an uproar; the kingdoms totter; he utters his voice;
the earth melts. |
| 2 Therefore we will not fear, though the earth should change, though the mountains shake in the heart of the sea, | 7 The Lord of hosts is with us;
the God of Jacob is our refuge. |
| 3 though its waters roar and foam, though the mountains tremble with its
tumult. | 8 Come, behold the works of the Lord;
see what desolations he has brought
on the earth. |
| 4 There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God,
the holy habitation of the Most High. | 9 He makes wars cease to the end of the earth; he breaks the bow and shatters
the spear; he burns the shields with fire. |
| 5 God is in the midst of the city; it shall not be moved; God will help it when the morning dawns. | 10 "Be still, and know that I am God!
I am exalted among the nations; I am
exalted in the earth." |
| | 11 The Lord of hosts is with us;
the God of Jacob is our refuge. |

The Second Reading

Philippians 4:4-9

Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice. Let your gentleness be known to everyone. The Lord is near. Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is pleasing, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. Keep on doing the things that you have learned and received and heard and seen in me, do them, and the God of peace will be with you.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

At that time Jesus said, "I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and the intelligent and have revealed them to infants; yes, Father, for such was your gracious will. The Nicene Creed

Said by all, standing as able

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:
By the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

To you and to your service I devote myself, body, soul, and spirit. Fill my memory with the record of your mighty works; enlighten my understanding with the light of your Holy Spirit; and may all the desires of my heart and will center in what you would have me do. Make me an instrument of your salvation for the people entrusted to my care, and grant that I may faithfully administer your holy Sacraments, and by my life and teaching set forth your true and living Word. Welcome and Announcements

A Note on Communion: You are invited to receive Holy Communion by coming forward and placing one open palm on top of the other to receive the wafer. Please tell the server if you would prefer a gluten free wafer. We are offering the common cup, and ask that you sip from it, and do not intinct (dip) the wafer. Receiving Communion in one kind is sufficient. If you do not wish to receive Communion but would like a blessing instead, please come forward and cross your arms over your chest. If you would like Communion to be brought to you, please let an usher know. It is the tradition of St. Patrick's Parish to invite all who feel called to receive Holy Communion to feel welcome in doing so. This is God's table. If you are interested in being baptized or confirmed, please speak to Andrew+ or another member of the clergy, and they will be glad to answer your questions and have a conversation with you about the process.

The Great Thanksgiving: Eucharistic Prayer One

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

You have filled us and all creation with your blessing and fed us with your constant love; you have redeemed us in Jesus Christ and knit us into one body. Through your Spirit you replenish us and call us to fullness in life.

Therefore, joining with Angels and Archangels and with the faithful of every generation, we lift our voices with all creation as we sing:

The Sanctus and Benedictus qui venit, S-124 earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Celebrant: Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of the universe and giver of life. You formed us in your own image and called us to dwell in your infinite love.

You gave the world into our care that we might be your faithful stewards and show forth your bountiful grace. But we failed to honor your image in one another and in ourselves; we would not see your goodness in the world around us; and so we violated your creation, abused one another, and rejected your love. Yet you never ceased to care for us, and prepared the way of salvation for all people.

Through Abraham and Sarah you called us into covenant with you. You delivered us from slavery, sustained us in the wilderness, and raised up prophets to renew your promise of salvation. Then, in the fullness of time, you sent your eternal Word, made mortal flesh in Jesus. Born into the human family, and dwelling among us, he revealed your glory. Giving himself freely to death on the cross, he triumphed over evil, opening the way of freedom and life.

On the night before he died for us, Our Savior Jesus Christ took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his friends, and said: "Take, eat: This is my Body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said: "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People:

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

Celebrant: Remembering his death and resurrection, we now present to you from your creation this bread and this wine. By your Holy Spirit may they be for us the Body and Blood of our Savior Jesus Christ. Grant that we who share these gifts may be filled with the Holy Spirit and live as Christ's Body in the world. Bring us into the everlasting heritage of your daughters and sons, that with Patrick and all your saints, past, present, and yet to come, we may praise your Name for ever.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever. AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer

Celebrant: And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Celebrant and People:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

A period of silence is kept.

Celebrant: Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.

People: Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Celebrant: The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

The Post Communion Prayer

Celebrant and People:

Almighty Father, we thank you for feeding us with the holy food of the Body and Blood of your Son, and for uniting us through him in the fellowship of your Holy Spirit. We thank you for raising up among us faithful servants for the ministry of your Word and Sacraments. We pray that Amy may be to us an effective example in word and action, in love and patience, and in holiness of life. Grant that we, with her, may serve you now, and always rejoice in your glory; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Light of St. Patrick's

Betsy Johnstone

Let the light shine before us; let the light shine within.
Let the light that is St. Patrick's bring us safely home again.
May its glowing warmth surround us as the shore surrounds the sea.
May the light that is St. Patrick's be a light for all to see.

The Blessing

Recessional Hymn

"I've got peace like a river"

Traditional

The musical notation is written on two staves in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The first staff contains the first line of the hymn, which includes a repeat sign. The lyrics are: 'I've got peace like a riv - er, I've got peace like a riv - er, I've got peace like a I've got joy like a foun - tain, I've got joy like a foun - tain, I've got joy like a I've got love like an o - cean, I've got love like an o - cean, I've got love like an'. The second staff continues the melody with two endings. The first ending leads back to the beginning of the first line, and the second ending concludes the hymn. The lyrics for the second staff are: 'riv - er in my soul; _____ I've got riv - er in my soul. _____ foun - tain in my soul; _____ I've got foun - tain in my soul. _____ o - cean in my soul; _____ I've got o - cean in my soul. _____'.

Stewardship

This year at St. Patrick's, our stewardship theme is "Being the Blessing." God blesses us in countless ways, and we are called not simply to receive those blessings, but to share them—to become a blessing to one another and to a world in need of love, justice, healing, and restoration. Making a pledge for next year allows the Vestry to make a responsible budget to enable the work of our mission and ministry.
