The Collect of the Day

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, increase in us the gifts of faith, hope, and charity; and, that we may obtain what you promise, make us love what you command; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The First Reading

Deuteronomy 34:1-12

Moses went up from the plains of Moab to Mount Nebo, to the top of Pisgah, which is opposite Jericho, and the Lord showed him the whole land: Gilead as far as Dan, all Naphtali, the land of Ephraim and Manasseh, all the land of Judah as far as the Western Sea, the Negeb, and the Plain—that is, the valley of Jericho, the city of palm trees—as far as Zoar. The Lord said to him, “This is the land of which I swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, ‘I will give it to your descendants’; I have let you see it with your eyes, but you shall not cross over there.” Then Moses, the servant of the Lord, died there in the land of Moab, at the Lord’s command. He was buried in a valley in the land of Moab, opposite Beth-peor, but no one knows his burial place to this day. Moses was one hundred twenty years old when he died; his sight was unimpaired and his vigor had not abated. The Israelites wept for Moses in the plains of Moab thirty days; then the period of mourning for Moses was ended. Joshua son of Nun was full of the spirit of wisdom, because Moses had laid his hands on him; and the Israelites obeyed him, doing as the Lord had commanded Moses. Never since has there arisen a prophet in Israel like Moses, whom the Lord knew face to face. He was unequalled for all the signs and wonders that the Lord sent him to perform in the land of Egypt, against Pharaoh and all his servants and his entire land, and for all the mighty deeds and all the terrifying displays of power that Moses performed in the sight of all Israel.

The Psalm

The people read the verses in bold.

Psalm 90:1-6, 13-17

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1 Lord, you have been our refuge *
from one generation to another. | 13 Return, O Lord; how long will you tarry? *
be gracious to your servants. |
| 2 Before the mountains were brought forth, or the land and the earth were born, *
from age to age you are God. | 14 Satisfy us by your loving-kindness in the morning; * so shall we rejoice and be glad all the days of our life. |
| 3 You turn us back to the dust and say, *
"Go back, O child of earth." | 15 Make us glad by the measure of the days that you afflicted us * and the years in which we suffered adversity. |
| 4 For a thousand years in your sight are like yesterday when it is past * and like a watch in the night. | 16 Show your servants your works *
and your splendor to their children. |
| 5 You sweep us away like a dream; *
we fade away suddenly like the grass. | 17 May the graciousness of the Lord our God be upon us; * prosper the work of our hands; prosper our handiwork. |
| 6 In the morning it is green and flourishes;
* in the evening it is dried up and withered. | |

The Second Reading

1 Thessalonians 2:1-8

You yourselves know, brothers and sisters, that our coming to you was not in vain, but though we had already suffered and been shamefully mistreated at Philippi, as you know, we had courage in our God to declare to you the gospel of God in spite of great opposition. For our appeal does not spring from deceit or impure motives or trickery, but just as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the message of the gospel, even so we speak, not to please mortals, but to please God who tests our hearts. As you know and as God is our witness, we never came with words of flattery or with a pretext for greed; nor did we seek praise from mortals, whether from you or from others, though we might have made demands as apostles of Christ. But we were gentle among you, like a nurse tenderly caring for her own children. So deeply do we care for you that we are determined to share with you not only the gospel of God but also our own selves, because you have become very dear to us.

The Holy Gospel

Matthew 22:34-46

Gospeller: The Holy Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together, and one of them, a lawyer, asked him a question to test him. "Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?" He said to him, "'You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind.' This is the greatest and first commandment. And a second is like it: 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets."

Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them this question: "What do you think of the Messiah? Whose son is he?" They said to him, "The son of David." He said to them, "How is it then that David by the Spirit calls him Lord, saying, 'The Lord said to my Lord, "Sit at my right hand, until I put your enemies under your feet"'?"

If David thus calls him Lord, how can he be his son?" No one was able to give him an answer, nor from that day did anyone dare to ask him any more questions.

Gospeller: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

The Rev. Andrew Ogletree

The Nicene Creed

Said by all, standing as able

We believe in one God,

the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father.

Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:

By the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;

he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People: Form VI

The Leader and People pray responsively

In peace, we pray to you, Lord God.

Silence

For all people in their daily life and work;

For our families, friends, and neighbors, and for those who are alone.

For this community, the nation, and the world;

For all who work for justice, freedom, and peace.

For the just and proper use of your creation;

For the victims of hunger, fear, injustice and oppression.

For all who are in danger, violence, and degradation, especially for people of color, LGBTQ+ folk, migrants and refugees, our sister Parish of St. Etienne in Haiti, and for those in the Holy Land, Sudan, Ukraine, Iran, Venezuela, and all war-torn places and places dealing with natural disasters including in Nepal, Uganda, and the Congo;

For those who minister to the sick, the friendless, and the needy.

For the peace and unity of the Church of God;

For all who proclaim the Gospel, and all who seek the Truth.

For Sarah Mullaley, the Archbishop of Canterbury, for Sean Rowe, our Presiding Bishop, and Mariann Budde our Bishop; and for all bishops and other ministers;

For all who serve God in his Church.

For the special needs and concerns of this congregation, Sarah Robinson and the Robinson family, Candy Fowler & Bob Brookhiser, Willis Geffert, Louis Orphanos, Dale and Gene Kenney, The Sommerkamp family, Jeffrey Peters and family, Martha Johnson, Jack Murphy, Eleni Lobene, Lisa Barrowclough, Mary Grace Corey, Elizabeth Geffert, Diane Bitsberger, Jalene Spain Thomas and the Thomas family, Bill Pugh, Alec Tongour, Clarke Nash, Chris, Claudia Hill, Barbara, Larry & Melissa Packard, Robert Vaughn, Susan, Peggy Beers, Ron Klingenberg, Jean-Luc Princivil, and Cherry Bourque and those we name before you, either silently or aloud.

Silence

Hear us, Lord;
For your mercy is great.

We thank you, Lord, for all the blessings of this life, especially for the marriage of Jayden Speed & Juan Pablo Jimenez-Alarcón, for this congregation, our Day School, especially students, families, faculty and staff, and those celebrating birthdays this week, especially: Vivian Hunter, Carolyn Bain Pugh, Jane Byerley, and Lia Donley

The People may add their own thanksgivings

We will exalt you, O God our King;
And praise your Name for ever and ever.

We pray for all who have died, especially Matt Robinson, that they may have a place in your eternal kingdom.

The People may add their own petitions

Lord, let your loving-kindness be upon them;
Who put their trust in you.

We pray to you also for the forgiveness of our sins.

Silence.

Leader and People:

Have mercy upon us, most merciful Father; in your compassion forgive us our sins, known and unknown, things done and left undone; and so uphold us by your Spirit that we may live and serve you in newness of life, to the honor and glory of your Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Celebrant: Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.
Amen.

The Peace

Celebrant: The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People: And also with you.

The Ministers and People may greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Welcome and Announcements

A Note on Communion: You are invited to receive Holy Communion by coming forward and placing one open palm on top of the other to receive the wafer. Please tell the server if you would prefer a gluten free wafer. We are offering the common cup, and ask that you sip from it, and do not intinct (dip) the wafer. Receiving Communion in one kind is sufficient. If you do not wish to receive Communion but would like a blessing instead, please come forward and cross your arms over your chest. If you would like Communion to be brought to you, please let an usher know. It is the tradition of St. Patrick's Parish to invite all who feel called to receive Holy Communion to feel welcome in doing so. This is God's table. If you are interested in being baptized or confirmed, please speak to Andrew+ or another member of the clergy, and they will be glad to answer your questions and have a conversation with you about the process.

Online Giving

If you wish to give an offering towards the mission and ministry of St. Patrick's and would prefer to do so online, please text "STPATS" to 73256, visit <https://onrealm.org/stpatrickschurchdc/Give>, or scan the QR code.

The Great Thanksgiving: Eucharistic Prayer C

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

God of all power, Ruler of the Universe, you are worthy of glory and praise.

Glory to you for ever and ever.

At your command all things came to be: the vast expanse of interstellar space, galaxies, suns, the planets in their courses, and this fragile earth, our island home.

By your will they were created and have their being.

From the primal elements you brought forth the human race, and blessed us with memory, reason, and skill. You made us the rulers of creation. But we turned against you, and betrayed your trust; and we turned against one another.

Have mercy, Lord, for we are sinners in your sight.

Again and again, you called us to return. Through prophets and sages you revealed your righteous Law. And in the fullness of time you sent your only Son, born of a woman, to fulfill your Law, to open for us the way of freedom and peace.

By his blood, he reconciled us. By his wounds, we are healed.

And therefore we praise you, joining with the heavenly chorus, with prophets, apostles, and martyrs, and with all those in every generation who have looked to you in hope, to proclaim with them your glory, in their unending hymn:

And so, Father, we who have been redeemed by him, and made a new people by water and the Spirit, now bring before you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ our Lord.

On the night he was betrayed he took bread, said the blessing, broke the bread, and gave it to his friends, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper, he took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Remembering now his work of redemption, and offering to you this sacrifice of thanksgiving,
We celebrate his death and resurrection, as we await the day of his coming.

Lord God of our Fathers and Mothers; God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; of Sarah, Rebecca, Leah and Rachel. God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ: Open our eyes to see your hand at work in the world about us. Deliver us from the presumption of coming to this Table for solace only, and not for strength; for pardon only, and not for renewal. Let the grace of this Holy Communion make us one body, one spirit in Christ, that we may worthily serve the world in his name.

Risen Lord, be known to us in the breaking of the Bread.

Accept these prayers and praises, Father, through Jesus Christ our great High Priest, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, your Church gives honor, glory, and worship, from generation to generation. AMEN

The Lord's Prayer

Celebrant: And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Celebrant and People:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

A period of silence is kept.

Celebrant: Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.

People: Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Celebrant: The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

The Post Communion Prayer

Celebrant and People:

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Music

Music for All Saints/All Souls - Our Cantoris Choir has been working on excerpts from a wonderful contemporary Requiem setting to share with you next weekend for our celebration of all the saints of God. Traditional Requiem texts are interspersed with poetry of Emily Dickinson and others. We will be joined by a chamber ensemble of Violin, Cello, Trumpet and Percussion.

This would be a great service to invite neighbors and friends. You may want to check it out ahead of time, too. Composer Kim Arnesen is Norwegian and this recording from the historic Lund Cathedral in neighboring Sweden is stunning. See the QR code below.

Fellowship

Gratitude Sunday and Festive Coffee Hour, November 15

On Sunday, November 15, we will celebrate all of the pledges and gifts people have made to our campaign and to our community both during the service and at a festive coffee hour following the service. If you are considering making a pledge, please send it before November 15, or bring it with you to put in the plate, and then stay for champagne and breakfast, hosted by the Vestry.

Flower Workshop & Light Breakfast

Saturday, November 14th from 10am-2pm in the Great Hall at St. Patrick's. Please email lalietongour@mac.com for more information.

Pastoral Care

Meal Train for the Lobene family

Parishioner Eleni Lobene was caught in a hit-and-run and has been recuperating after surgery. Please help support the Lobene family as they care for her.

Meal Train for the Chittooran Family

Parishioners Colleen Crawford and Jay Chittooran share the news of the birth of their son Benjamin "Benji" Mathai Chittooran! Please feel free to sign up to help with a meal as we support our parishioners.

Outreach

Walk Around Food for Friendship Place

Friendship Place in Tenleytown and Samaritan Ministries of Greater Washington in Anacostia both offer “walk-around food” to unhoused people in DC. It is a huge help to have a supply of quick sustenance as they help people with bigger issues, but it can be surprisingly expensive for them to keep items in stock.

Please donate any of the following items - and particularly any protein, soup or fruit with a pull-top container :

Individual fruit cups
Granola or cereal bars
Individual microwaveable soups
Tuna ready-to-eat packets
Sandwich cracker packets
Instant oatmeal packets or cereal cups
Instant noodle cups

Scan the QR code to purchase these items on Amazon

We will be collecting in a basket outside the nave on Sundays or you can drop items off to the church office.

Questions – ask Karen Melchar (kfmelchar@gmail.com) or Ellen Terpstra (srwarden@stpatrikchurchdc.org). Want to get involved with this mission? Let us know!

Shelter Chefs

Every month we gather to make a meal for about 20 women who stay at a shelter in Anacostia. This entails making a couple casseroles and a side dish.

There are three ways you can help:

1. Purchase food ahead of time (and be reimbursed by our outreach funds)
2. Stay after church to help make 2 casseroles, a side, and a dessert
3. Help serve the meal that evening around 5pm with others from St. Patrick's.

We do this every 4th Sunday of the month. Here are some upcoming opportunities.

11/29; 12/27; 1/24; 2/28; 3/28; 4/25

Please email Alex Alderman alexandra.alderman@gmail.com or Ellen Terpstra srwarden@stpatrickschurchdc.org to volunteer and get more information.

Grate Patrol

Every third Sunday of the month we make sandwiches and pack bags of food to be donated to Salvation Army's Grate Patrol, which delivers food to people who are on the street.

We need your help in multiple ways:

1. Show up and make sandwiches
2. Donate food items
3. Help set up before the service

Upcoming dates: 11/22; 12/20; 1/17; 2/21; 3/21; 4/18

TODAY: Please come volunteer following the service today. Shelter Chefs will be making a meal and then delivering it. For information please email Margret Nedelkoff mnedelkoff@yahoo.com or Ellen Terpstra srwarden@stpatrickschurchdc.org

Stewardship

This year at St. Patrick's, our stewardship theme is "Being the Blessing." God blesses us in countless ways, and we are called not simply to receive those blessings, but to share them—to become a blessing to one another and to a world in need of love, justice, healing, and restoration. Making a pledge for next year allows the Vestry to make a responsible budget to enable the work of our mission and ministry.
