

St. Patrick's Episcopal Church

The Feast of All Souls
Choral Evensong
November 1, 2026 5:00pm

A Note on this Service

Welcome to St. Patrick's Episcopal Church. We are a Christ-centered open and affirming community that gathers together in worship and fellowship, serves our children, our neighbors, and those in need, and grows together in faith through study and prayer.

This evening, we come together to observe All Souls' Day, which is a time to pray for and remember all the faithful departed, including those closest to us. It is a time to make space for our grief, while being comforted and strengthened by God's promise of eternal life for those who have died, and God's promise to be with us in the midst of our losses.

The form of this evening's worship is evensong: a sung version of evening prayer, which draws most of its text, including readings and canticles, from Holy Scripture. You are invited to participate throughout the service, as we enter a time of prayerful reflection and remembrance.

Evensong for All Souls Day

Prelude

“Even when he is silent”

K. Arnesen

I believe in the sun, even when it's not shining.

I believe in love, even when I feel it not.

I believe in God, even when he is silent.

Welcome

The Rev. Andrew Ogletree

The Opening Sentences

Officiant: If I say, "Surely the darkness will cover me, and the light around me turn to night," darkness is not dark to you, O Lord; the night is as bright as the day; darkness and light to you are both alike.

Please be seated

Introit

Requiem: Kyrie - Confutatis

K. Arnesen

Lord have mercy, Christ have mercy, Lord have mercy.

When the cursed are confounded, call me to be with the blessed.

I pray, suppliant and kneeling, my heart contrite, protect me in my final hour.

The people read the verses in bold.

Out of the depths have I called to you, O Lord;
Lord, hear my voice;
let your ears consider well the voice of my supplication.

If you, Lord, were to note what is done amiss, O Lord, who could stand?

For there is forgiveness with you;
therefore you shall be feared.

I wait for the Lord; my soul waits for him;
in his word is my hope.

My soul waits for the Lord,
more than watchmen for the morning,
more than watchmen for the morning.

O Israel, wait for the Lord,
for with the Lord there is mercy;

With him there is plenteous redemption,
and he shall redeem Israel from all their sins.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit:
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

The First Reading

Isaiah 25:6-9

On this mountain the Lord of hosts will make for all peoples a feast of rich food, a feast of well-aged wines, of rich food filled with marrow, of well-aged wines strained clear. And he will destroy on this mountain the shroud that is cast over all peoples, the covering that is spread over all nations he will swallow up death forever. Then the Lord God will wipe away the tears from all faces, and the disgrace of his people he will take away from all the earth for the Lord has spoken. It will be said on that day, "See, this is our God; we have waited for him, so that he might save us. This is the Lord for whom we have waited; let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation."

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

The Song of Mary

Magnificat

Kingsfold

My soul pro-claims your great-ness, Lord; I sing my Sa-vior's praise! You To all who live in ho-ly fear your mer-cy ev-er flows. With To Is-ra-el, your ser-vant blest, your mer-cy's ev-er sure; the looked up-on my low-li-ness, and I am full of grace. Now might-y arm you dash the proud, their schem-ing hearts ex-pose. The pro-mise to our par-ents made their chil-dren's will se-cure. Sing ev-ery land and ev-ery age this bles-sing shall pro-claim, great ruth-less you have cast a-side, the low-ly throned in-stead; the glo-ry to the Ho-ly One, give ho-nor to the Word, and won-ders you have done for me, and ho-ly is your name.
hun-gry filled with all good things, the rich sent off un-fed.
praise the Power of the Most High, one God, by all a-dored.

The Second Reading

1 Corinthians 15:50-58

What I am saying, brothers and sisters, is this: flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God, nor does the perishable inherit the imperishable. Look, I will tell you a mystery! We will not all die, but we will all be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised imperishable, and we will be changed. For this perishable body must put on imperishability, and this mortal body must put on immortality. When this perishable body puts on imperishability and this mortal body puts on immortality, then the saying that is written will be fulfilled: "Death has been swallowed up in victory." "Where, O death, is your victory? Where, O death, is your sting?" The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore, my beloved brothers and sisters, be steadfast, immovable, always excelling in the work of the Lord because you know that in the Lord your labor is not in vain.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

The Song of Simeon Nunc Dimitis “Lord God, you now have set your servant free” Song 1

Lord, God, you now have set your ser-vant free to go in peace as pro-mised in your word;

my eyes have seen the Sa-vior, Christ the Lord, pre-pared by you for all the world to see, to shine on na-tions trapped in dark-est night, the glo-ry of your peo-ple, and their light.

The Apostle's Creed

Officiant and People:

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only son, our Lord.

He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary.

He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.

He descended to the dead.

On the third day he rose again.

He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

The Prayers

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Suffrages B: Tone 1

That this evening may be holy, good, and peace - ful,

People

We en - treat you, O Lord.

(This response is sung after each petition)

That your holy angels may lead us in paths of peace and good-will,

That we may be pardoned and forgiven for our sins and of - fen - ses,

That there may be peace to your Church and to the whole world,

That we may depart this life in your faith and fear, and not be condemned before the great judg - ment seat of Christ,

That we may be bound together by thy Holy Spirit in the communion of

Patrick and all your saints, entrusting one another and all our life to Christ,

For All the Faithful Departed

Officiant: In peace let us pray to the Lord.

Almighty God, who have knit together your elect in one communion and fellowship, in the mystical body of your Son Christ our Lord: Grant to your whole Church in paradise and on earth, your light and your peace. Amen.

Grant that all those who have been baptized into Christ's death and resurrection may die to sin and rise to newness of life, and that through the grave and gate of death we may pass with him to our joyful resurrection. Amen.

Grant to us who are still in our pilgrimage, and who walk as yet by faith, that your Holy Spirit may lead us in holiness and righteousness all our days. Amen.

Grant to your faithful people pardon and peace, that we may be cleansed from all our sins, and serve you with a quiet mind. Amen.

Grant to all who mourn a sure confidence in your fatherly care, that, casting all their grief upon you, they may know the consolation of your love. Amen.

Give courage and faith to those who are bereaved, that they may have strength to meet the days ahead in the comfort of a reasonable and holy hope, in the joyful expectation of eternal life with those they love. Amen.

Help us, in the midst of things we cannot understand, to believe and trust in the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, and the resurrection to life everlasting. Amen.

Grant us, with all who have died in the hope of the resurrection, to have our consummation and bliss in your eternal and everlasting glory, and, with all your saints, to receive the crown of life which you promise to all who share in the victory of your Son Jesus Christ; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Please be seated or kneel as the names are read

Litany of names

Father of all, we pray to thee for those we love, but see no longer: Grant them thy peace; let light perpetual shine upon them; and in thy loving wisdom and almighty power, work in them the good purpose of thy perfect will; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Anthem

In paradisum

Ancient Chant

In paradisum deducant te angeli: in tuo adventu suscipiant te martyres, et perducant te in civitatem sanctam Jerusalem.

Into paradise may the angels lead you. At your coming may the martyrs receive you, and bring you into the holy city Jerusalem.

The Collect of the Day

O God, the Maker and Redeemer of all believers: Grant to the faithful departed the unsearchable benefits of the passion of your Son; that on the day of his appearing they may be manifested as your children; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A Collect for Peace

Most holy God, the source of all good desires, all right judgments, and all just works: Give to us, your servants, that peace which the world cannot give, so that our minds may be fixed on the doing of your will, and that we, being delivered from the fear of all enemies, may live in peace and quietness; through the mercies of Christ Jesus our Savior. Amen.

Collect for Mission

Keep watch, dear lord, with those who work, or watch, or weep this night, and give your angels charge over those who sleep. Tend the sick, Lord Christ; give rest to the weary, bless the dying, soothe the suffering, pity the afflicted, shield the joyous; and all for your love's sake. Amen

Anthem

Requiem: Pie Jesu
Suzanne Wynn, Soprano

K. Arnesen

Merciful Jesus, grant them everlasting rest.

The General Thanksgiving

Officiant and People: Almighty God, Father of all mercies, we your unworthy servants give you humble thanks for all your goodness and loving-kindness to us and to all whom you have made. We bless you for our creation, preservation, and all the blessings of this life; but above all for your immeasurable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ; for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory. And, we pray, give us such an awareness of your mercies, that with truly thankful hearts we may show forth your praise, not only with our lips, but in our lives, by giving up our selves to your service, and by walking before you in holiness and righteousness all our days; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory throughout all ages. Amen.

A Prayer of St. Chrysostom

Officiant: Almighty God, you have given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplication to you; and you have promised through your well-beloved Son that when two or three are gathered together in his Name you will be in the midst of them: Fulfill now, O Lord, our desires and petitions as may be best for us; granting us in this world knowledge of your truth, and in the age to come life everlasting. Amen.

Concluding Versicle

Officiant: Glory to God whose power, working in us, can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine: Glory to him from generation to generation in the Church, and in Christ Jesus for ever and ever. Amen.
