The Opening Acclamation

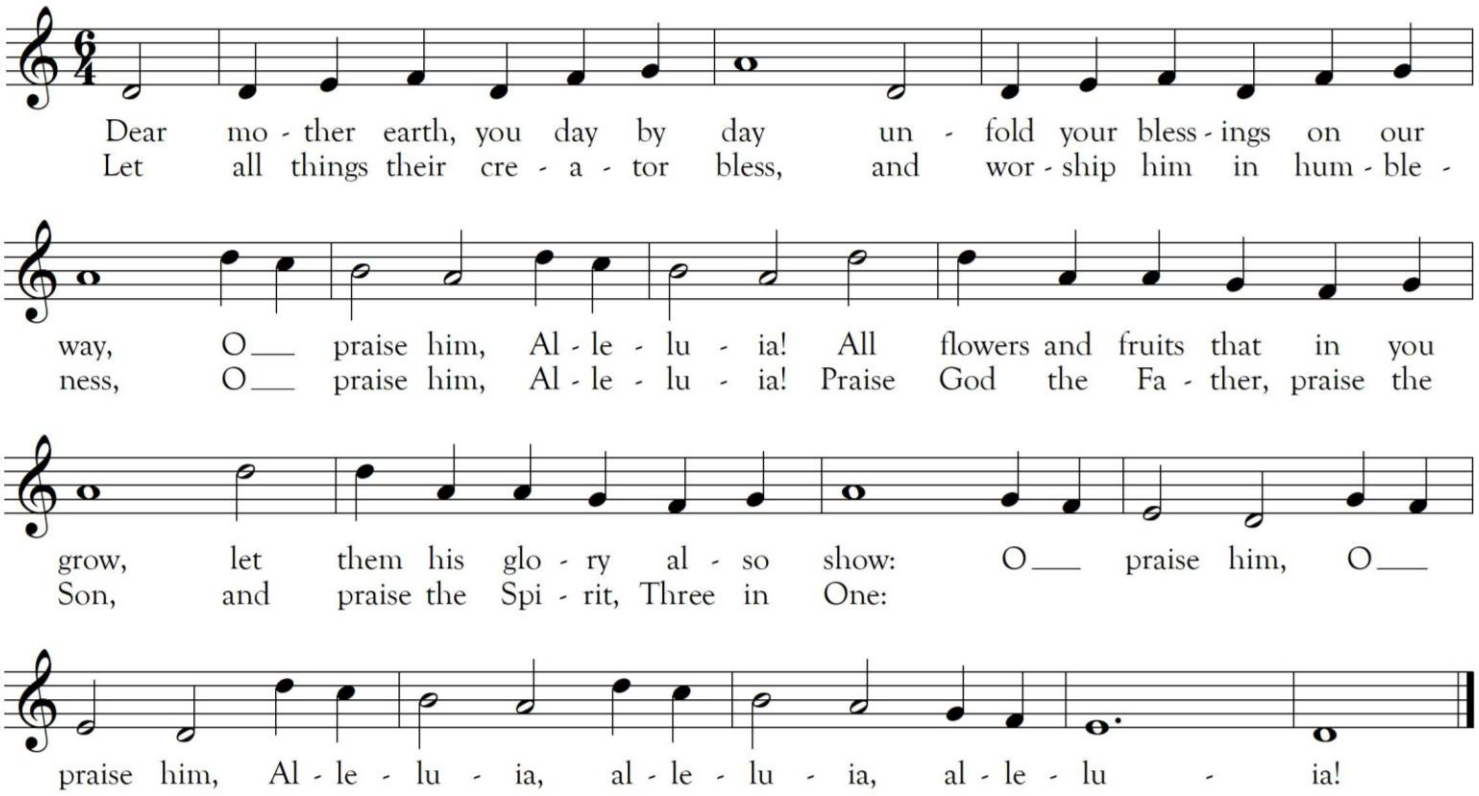

Celebrant: Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit

People: And blessed be his kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

The Collect for Purity

All: Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

Blessed Lord, who caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning: Grant us so to hear them, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest them, that we may embrace and ever hold fast the blessed hope of everlasting life, which you have given us in our Savior Jesus Christ; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The First Reading Judges 4:1-7

The Israelites again did what was evil in the sight of the Lord, after Ehud died. So the Lord sold them into the hand of King Jabin of Canaan, who reigned in Hazor; the commander of his army was Sisera, who lived in Harosheth-ha-goiim. Then the Israelites cried out to the Lord for help; for he had nine hundred chariots of iron, and had oppressed the Israelites cruelly twenty years.
At that time Deborah, a prophetess, wife of Lappidoth, was judging Israel. She used to sit under the palm of Deborah between Ramah and Bethel in the hill country of Ephraim; and the Israelites came up to her for judgment. She sent and summoned Barak son of Abinoam from Kedesh in Naphtali, and said to him, "The Lord, the God of Israel, commands you, 'Go, take position at Mount Tabor, bringing ten thousand from the tribe of Naphtali and the tribe of Zebulun. I will draw out Sisera, the general of Jabin's army, to meet you by the Wadi Kishon with his chariots and his troops; and I will give him into your hand.'"

Reader: The Word of the Lord.
People: Thanks be to God.

The Psalm The people read the verses in bold. Psalm 123

1 To you I lift up my eyes, * to you enthroned in the heavens.

2 As the eyes of servants look to the hand of their masters, * and the eyes of a maid to the hand of her mistress.

3 So our eyes look to the Lord our God, * until he shows us his mercy.

4 Have mercy upon us, O Lord, have mercy, * for we have had more than enough of contempt.

5 Too much of the scorn of the indolent rich, * and of the derision of the proud.

The Second Reading 1 Thessalonians 5:1-11

Now concerning the times and the seasons, brothers and sisters, you do not need to have anything written to you. For you yourselves know very well that the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night. When they say, "There is peace and security," then sudden destruction will come upon them, as labor pains come upon a pregnant woman, and there will be no escape! But you, beloved, are not in darkness, for that day to surprise you like a thief; for you are all children of light and children of the day; we are not of the night or of darkness. So then let us not fall asleep as others do, but let us keep awake and be sober; for those who sleep sleep at night, and those who are drunk get drunk at night. But since we belong to the day, let us be sober, and put on the breastplate of faith and love, and for a helmet the hope of salvation. For God has destined us not for wrath but for obtaining salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, who died for us, so that whether we are awake or asleep we may live with him. Therefore encourage one another and build up each other, as indeed you are doing.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.
People: Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel Matthew 25:14-30

Gospeller: The Holy Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, "It is as if a man, going on a journey, summoned his slaves and entrusted his property to them; to one he gave five talents, to another two, to another one, to each according to his ability. Then he went away. The one who had received the five talents went off at once and traded with them, and made five more talents. In the same way, the one who had the two talents made two more talents. But the one who had received the one talent went off and dug a hole in the ground and hid his master's money. After a long time the master of those slaves came and settled accounts with them. Then the one who had received the five talents came forward, bringing five more talents, saying, 'Master, you handed over to me five talents; see, I have made five more talents.' His master said to him, 'Well done, good and trustworthy slave; you have been trustworthy in a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master.' And the one with the two talents also came forward, saying, 'Master, you handed over to me two talents; see, I have made two more talents.' His master said to him, 'Well done, good and trustworthy slave; you have been trustworthy in a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master.' Then the one who had received the one talent also came forward, saying, 'Master, I knew that you were a harsh man, reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you did not scatter seed; so I was afraid, and I went and hid your talent in the ground. Here you have what is yours.' But his master replied, 'You wicked and lazy slave! You knew, did you, that I reap where I did not sow, and gather where I did not scatter? Then you ought to have invested my money with the bankers, and on my return I would have received what was my own with interest. So take the talent from him, and give it to the one with the ten talents. For to all those who have, more will be given, and they will have an abundance; but from those who have nothing, even what they have will be taken away. As for this worthless slave, throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.'"

Gospeller: The Gospel of the Lord.
People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon The Rev. Andrew Ogletree

The Nicene Creed Said by all, standing as able

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:
By the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People: Form IV
The Leader and People pray responsively

Intercessor:
Let us pray for the Church and for the world.
Grant, Almighty God, that all who confess your Name may be united in your truth, live together in your love, and reveal your glory in the world.

Silence
Lord, in your mercy
Hear our prayer.

Guide the people of this land, and of all nations, in the ways of justice and peace; that we may honor each other and serve the common good. We pray for the poor and oppressed, the widow and orphan. For all migrants, LGBTQ+ folk and people of color who are being targeted. We pray for the Parish of St. Etienne and the people of Haiti, and for those in Gaza, the Holy Land, Ukraine, Russia, Sudan, Iran and all war-torn places.

Silence

Lord, in your mercy
Hear our prayer.

Give us all a reverence for the earth as your own creation, that we may use its resources rightly in the service of others and to your honor and glory. Help us to be restorers of our environment and our planet.

Silence

Lord, in your mercy
Hear our prayer.

Bless all whose lives are closely linked with ours, especially this congregation, our Day School, and those celebrating birthdays this week especially Lisa Addison, Artha Princivil, and Lalie Tongour; grant that we may serve Christ in them, and love one another as he loves us.

Silence

Lord, in your mercy
Hear our prayer.

Comfort and heal all those who suffer in body, mind, or spirit; especially, Yanina Kaminski, Sarah Robinson and the Robinson family, Candy Fowler and Bob Brookhiser, Willis Geffert, Louis Orphanos, The Sommerkamp family, Jeffrey Peters and family, Martha Johnson, Jack Murphy, Eleni Lobene, Lisa Barrowclough, Mary Grace Corey, Elizabeth Geffert, Diane Bitsberger, Jalene Spain Thomas and the Thomas family, Bill Pugh, Alec Tongour, Clarke Nash, Chris, Claudia Hill, Barbara, Larry & Melissa Packard, Robert Vaughn, Susan, Peggy Beers, Ron Klingenberg, Jean-Luc Princivil, and Cherry Bourque. Give them courage, hope, and a deep sense of your abiding presence, and bring them the joy of your salvation.

Silence

Lord, in your mercy
Hear our prayer.
We commend to your mercy all who have died, that your will for them may be fulfilled; and that we may share with all your saints in your eternal kingdom.

Silence
Lord, in your mercy
Hear our prayer.

The Celebrant adds a concluding collect.

The Confession of Sin
Celebrant: Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.
Celebrant and People:

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant: Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Peace

Celebrant: The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People: And also with you.

The Ministers and People may greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Welcome and Announcements

A Note on Communion: You are invited to receive Holy Communion by coming forward and placing one open palm on top of the other to receive the wafer. Please tell the server if you would prefer a gluten free wafer. We are offering the common cup, and ask that you sip from it, and do not intinct (dip) the wafer. Receiving Communion in one kind is sufficient. If you do not wish to receive Communion but would like a blessing instead, please come forward and cross your arms over your chest. If you would like Communion to be brought to you, please let an usher know. It is the tradition of St. Patrick's Parish to invite all who feel called to receive Holy Communion to feel welcome in doing so. This is God's table. If you are interested in being baptized or confirmed, please speak to Andrew+ or another member of the clergy, and they will be glad to answer your questions and have a conversation with you about the process.

Online Giving

If you wish to give an offering towards the mission and ministry of St. Patrick's and would prefer to do so online, please text "STPATS" to 73256, visit https://onrealm.org/stpatrickschurchdc/Give, or scan the QR code.

The Offertory

Offertory Anthem A Song of Thanks L. Smith
Family Choir

For all the wonders of thy creation, the golden sunlight, the silver moon,
The towering mountains, the boundless ocean, we thank thee, Lord, we thank thee, Lord
We'll sing a song of celebration for the wonders that we see;
Sing a song of jubilation, a song of thanks, O Lord, to thee.
For quiet evenings beside the fire, for precious moments with those we love,
For all the gladness that comes from caring, we thank thee, Lord, we thank thee, Lord.
And for awareness of all thy blessings, the sense of wonder so freely given,
With grateful spirits, and deep rejoicing, we thank thee, Lord, we thank thee, Lord.

The Great Thanksgiving: Eucharistic Prayer C

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.
People: And also with you.
Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.
People: We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

God of all power, Ruler of the Universe, you are worthy of glory and praise.
Glory to you for ever and ever.

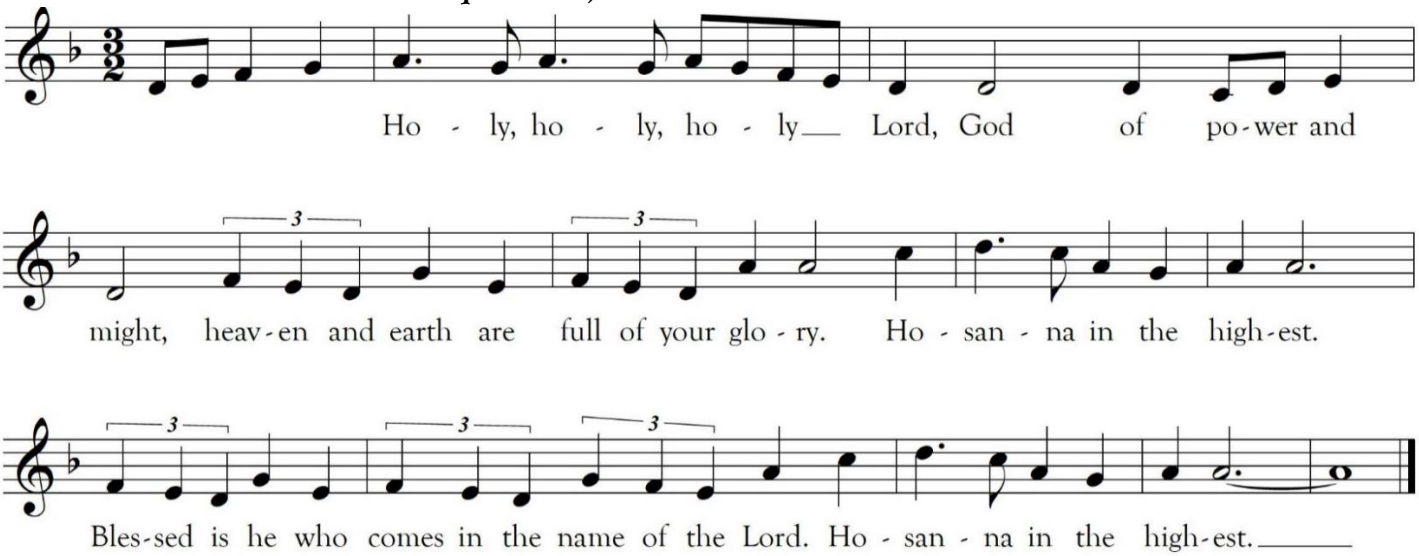

At your command all things came to be: the vast expanse of interstellar space, galaxies, suns, the planets in their courses, and this fragile earth, our island home.
By your will they were created and have their being.

From the primal elements you brought forth the human race, and blessed us with memory, reason, and skill. You made us the rulers of creation. But we turned against you, and betrayed your trust; and we turned against one another.
Have mercy, Lord, for we are sinners in your sight.

Again and again, you called us to return. Through prophets and sages you revealed your righteous Law. And in the fullness of time you sent your only Son, born of a woman, to fulfill your Law, to open for us the way of freedom and peace.
By his blood, he reconciled us. By his wounds, we are healed.

And therefore we praise you, joining with the heavenly chorus, with prophets, apostles, and martyrs, and with all those in every generation who have looked to you in hope, to proclaim with them your glory, in their unending hymn:

The Sanctus and Benedictus qui venit, S-129 R. Powell

And so, Father, we who have been redeemed by him, and made a new people by water and the Spirit, now bring before you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ our Lord.

On the night he was betrayed he took bread, said the blessing, broke the bread, and gave it to his friends, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper, he took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Remembering now his work of redemption, and offering to you this sacrifice of thanksgiving,
We celebrate his death and resurrection, as we await the day of his coming.

Lord God of our Fathers and Mothers; God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; of Sarah, Rebecca, Leah and Rachel. God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ: Open our eyes to see your hand at work in the world about us. Deliver us from the presumption of coming to this Table for solace only, and not for strength; for pardon only, and not for renewal. Let the grace of this Holy Communion make us one body, one spirit in Christ, that we may worthily serve the world in his name.
Risen Lord, be known to us in the breaking of the Bread.

Accept these prayers and praises, Father, through Jesus Christ our great High Priest, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, your Church gives honor, glory, and worship, from generation to generation. AMEN

The Lord's Prayer

Celebrant: And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Celebrant and People:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

A period of silence is kept.

Celebrant: Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.
People: Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Celebrant: The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Communion Hymn "All who hunger" Holy Manna

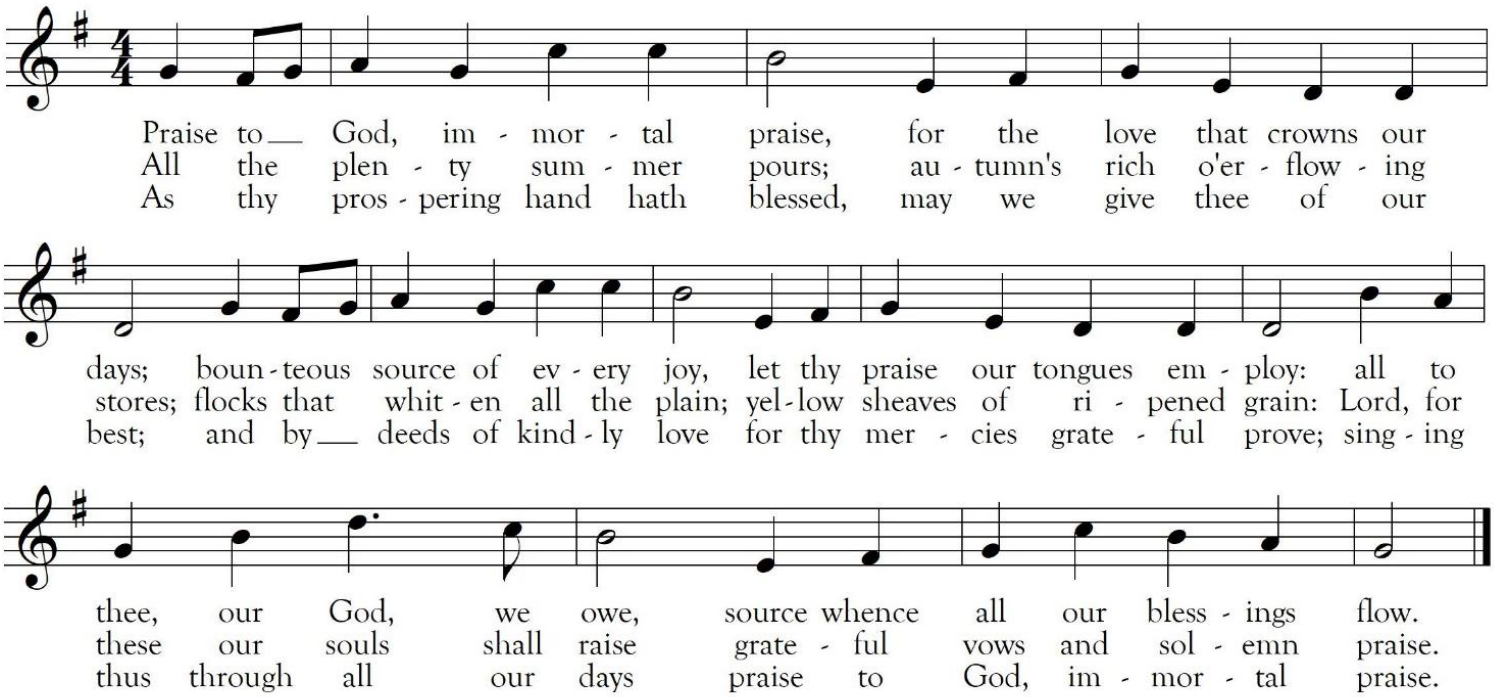

The Post Communion Prayer

Celebrant and People:

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Fellowship

After the Service Today!

Gratitude Sunday and Festive Coffee Hour

Let's celebrate all of the pledges and gifts people have made to our campaign and to our community both during the service and at a festive coffee hour following the service. If you are considering making a pledge, please bring it with you to put in the plate, and then stay for champagne and breakfast, hosted by the Vestry.

Music

Thank you, Family Choir! We appreciate our leaders this morning. A great group who gathers a few times each season to share music and fellowship. We'll gather again after the holidays so watch this space!

Youth Handbells are getting ready TODAY for a short session of ringing to share on Nov. 22nd. Grab a snack and head downstairs to rehearse!

Want to join our Cantoris Choir for Christmas Eve? We sing at the later service including an extended choral prelude and anthems throughout the service. We start rehearsing soon so let me know if you want me to save you a seat!

COMING UP!!!

The Eric Byrd Trio will be back with us in December for another holiday treat. Mark your calendars for Sunday, Dec. 6. We'll gather for a dinner at 5:00, then watch "A Charlie Brown Christmas" together at 5:30 followed by a wonderful jazz rendition of all the Vince Guaraldi favorites. Great opportunity to invite friends and neighbors!

This has become an awesome tradition here at St. Patrick's.

Would you like to help sponsor the event? Please let Adele know!

Pastoral Care

Meal Train for the Chittooran Family
Parishioners Colleen Crawford and Jay Chittooran share the news of the birth of their son Benjamin "Benji" Mathai Chittooran! Please feel free to sign up to help with a meal as we support our parishioners.

Outreach

Grate Patrol – Today following the service!

Every 3rd Sunday of the month we make sandwiches and pack bags of food to be donated to Salvation Army's Grate Patrol, which delivers food to people who are on the street.

We need your help in multiple ways:
1. Show up and make sandwiches
2. Donate food items
3. Help set up before the service

Upcoming dates: 12/20; 1/17; 2/21; 3/21; 4/18

For information please email Margret Nedelkoff mnedelkoff@yahoo.com or Ellen Terpstra srwarden@stpatrickschurchdc.org

Shelter Chefs – Next Sunday

Every month we gather to make a meal for about 20 women who stay at a shelter in Anacostia. This entails making a couple casseroles and a side dish.

There are three ways you can help:
1. Purchase food ahead of time (and be reimbursed by our outreach funds)
2. Stay after church to help make 2 casseroles, a side, and a dessert
3. Help serve the meal that evening around 5pm with others from St. Patrick's.

We do this every 4th Sunday of the month. Here are some upcoming opportunities.

11/22; 12/27; 1/24; 2/28; 3/28; 4/25

Please email Alex Alderman alexandra.alderman@gmail.com or Ellen Terpstra srwarden@stpatrickschurchdc.org to volunteer and get more information.

Walk Around Food for Friendship Place

Friendship Place in Tenleytown and Samaritan Ministries of Greater Washington in Anacostia both offer "walk-around food" to unhoused people in DC. It is a huge help to have a supply of quick sustenance as they help people with bigger issues, but it can be surprisingly expensive for them to keep items in stock.
Please donate any of the following items - and particularly any protein, soup or fruit with a pull-top container **:

Individual fruit cups
Granola or cereal bars
Individual microwaveable soups
Tuna ready-to-eat packets
Sandwich cracker packets
Instant oatmeal packets or cereal cups
Instant noodle cups

Scan the QR code to purchase these items on Amazon

We will be collecting in a basket outside the nave on Sundays or you can drop items off to the church office.
Questions – ask Karen Melchar (kfmelchar@gmail.com) or Ellen Terpstra (srwarden@stpatrickschurchdc.org). Want to get involved with this mission? Let us know!

We currently have 78 out of 150 possible pledges for a total of $490,315
100% is our goal and we can do it!

This year at St. Patrick's, our stewardship theme is "Being the Blessing." God blesses us in countless ways, and we are called not simply to receive those blessings, but to share them—to become a blessing to one another and to a world in need of love, justice, healing, and restoration. Making a pledge for next year allows the Vestry to make a responsible budget to enable the work of our mission and ministry.
